PREAMBLE

So that things may be done decently and in order in accordance with the accepted tenets of other churches, and that we may more readily help each other in our Christian service, we declare and establish this constitution to which we voluntarily submit ourselves

ARTICLE 1

Name and purpose

SECTION 1. NAME

This congregation of believers shall be known as the LORD'S LAST CALL CHURCH (LUONG MOGIK MAR NYASAYE)

SECTION 2. OBJECTIVES AND PURPOSE

- I. To disseminate the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the Word of God to the end that people may be evangelized and believers may be conformed to the image of Jesus Christ in whole world.
- II. To regularly assemble together the members of this church for fellowship, one with another, both in large public congregations and in small fellowship groups in houses and to co-operate in the building up of the whole Body of Christ.
- III. To provide systematic study in the Bible to those who desire to be fed the Word of God (1 Peter 5:1-3).
- IV. To involve every participant of this church in its fellowship and activities and in the Holy Spirit throughout the Body of Christ.
- V. To perform the ordinances of the church which include baptising believers in water by immersion, celebrating the Lords Supper and performing prayers which include but are not limited to, anointing the sick with Holy Water, conducting weddings and funerals and dedicating infants.
- VI. To act with charitable concerns for and to help not only the members of this church, but all people in need of any help which this church can give, regardless of race, social position or religious affiliation.
- VII. To pray for the needs of all people, for local and national leaders and governments, and for all that are in authority as instructed in 1 Timothy 2:1-3.
- VIII. To support and encourage communication and extension of the Christian life and witness by Tent Camping, preaching and teaching of biblical principles to all people, both within the church and elsewhere; not only by conventional means, but also by all means which will accomplish such communication, extension, teaching and preaching.
- IX. To recognize the various Churches established by God to equip believers to fulfill their respective functions as members of the Body of Christ and to bring the whole Body of Christ into unity, maturity and completion according to Ephesians 4:11-16.

- X. To license and ordain ministers, to assist in the establishment and maintenance of other churches or branches, and to send forth and maintain ministers, missionaries and other workers for the establishment and up building of such churches or branches, either domestic or foreign.
- XI. To solemnize marriages and wedding ceremonies to those who are newly getting married and to formalize those who are already married as per in the bible and government regulations.

“So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate.” Matthew 19:6

ARTICLE 2

Statement of faith and covenant

SECTION 1. STATEMENT OF FAITH

The Church holds certain fundamental beliefs, the principle features of which together with portions of the scriptural references upon which they are based, may be summarized as follows:

- (i) The Holy Scriptures: That the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments were written by men who were supernaturally inspired by God. What they wrote is true without any mixture of error and is therefore the only complete and final revelation of the will of God to mankind given. (II Tim 3:15-17).
- (ii) The Godhead: We believe in one Triune God, eternally existing in three persons Father, Son and Holy Spirit, each coeternal in being coidentical in nature, coequal in power and glory and having the same attributes and perfections (Mathew3:16-17, 28:19, Mark1:9-11; John 14:10-11, 2Chorinthians13:14; 1Timothy 3:16; 1John5:7)
- (iii) Jesus Christ: That Jesus Christ is God, being of the same nature and essence as the Eternal Father, was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, while retaining His divine nature. He took upon Himself the nature of the human family, lived on earth as man, exemplified in His life as our example of the principle of righteousness, attested His relationship to God by mighty miracles, died for our sins on the cross, was raised from the dead and ascended to heaven and is now exalted at the right hand of God, where, as our high priest, He fulfills the ministry of Representative, intercessor and Advocate(John 1:1-14, Heb. 2:9-18, 4:14-16, Isa7Romans8:34, 1John2:1-2).
- (iv) Holy spirit: We believe that the Holy Spirit is the third person of the trinity who convicts the world of sin, of righteousness and of judgment, and that He is the supernatural agent in regeneration, baptizing all believers into the body of Christ, indwelling and sealing them unto the day of redemption

(John 16:8-11, Romans 8:9) We believe that God is sovereign in the bestowal of spiritual gifts to every believer. (Romans 12:38, Ephesians 4:7-12).

- (v) Baptism: That Baptism is a gospel ordinance commemorating the death, burial and resurrection of Christ. In Baptism, public testimony is given to the effect that the one baptized has been with Christ, buried with Him and raised with Him to walk in the newness of life. Only one mode of Baptism can represent these facts of experience, and that is baptism by immersion in the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit (Matt. 28:19). That every person in order to receive salvation must experience the new birth. This comprises an entire transformation of life and character by the recreative power of God through Faith in the Lord Jesus Christ (John 3:16, Matt. 18:3, Acts 2:37-39).
- (vi) God's will: We believe that the will of God as it relates to moral conduct is comprehended in His Law of Ten Commandments. These are great moral, unchangeable precepts, binding upon all men in every age: and not depending either in time or place, or any other circumstance liable to change, but on the nature of God and the nature of man and their unchangeable relation to each other.
- (vii) That the Fourth Commandment of this unchangeable Law requires the observation of the Seventh Day, the Sabbath. This Holy institution is at the same time the memorial of creation and a sign of sanctification, a sign of the believer's rest from his own works of sin, and his entrance into rest of the soul that Jesus promises to those who come to Him (Gen. 2:1-3, Ex. 20:8-11, 31:12-17, Heb. 4:1-10).
- (viii) That the law of Ten Commandments points out sin, the penalty of which is death. The Law cannot save the transgressor from his sin nor impart to keep him from sinning. In infinite love and mercy, God provides a way where by this may be done. He furnishes a substitute, Christ the righteous one, to die in man's stead "For he has made him, who knew no sin, to be sin for us. That we might be made the righteousness of God in him". (II Cor. 5:21). We are justified not by obedience to the Law, but by the grace that is in Christ Jesus. By accepting Christ, man is reconciled to God, justified by the blood of Christ for the sins of the past and saved from the power of sin by His indwelling life. Thus the gospel becomes "the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth". (John 3:4, Romans 7:7, 3:20, Eph. 2:10, 1 John 2: 1-2, Rom. 5:8-10, Gal. 2:20, Eph. 3:7, Heb. 8:3-12).

- (ix) The condition of man: We believe that the first man was created in the image and likeness of God, in innocence and without sin. However, in Adam's sin the human race fell, inherited a sinful nature and became alienated from God. Therefore, every man is a sinner by both nature and imputation and is thereby justly condemned to eternal damnation without defense or excuse and man himself is incapable of remedying his sinful condition by his own means (Genesis1:26-27, 3:1-24, Romans3:10-18, Titus3:5).
- (x) Resurrection: That there shall be a resurrection of the just and of the unjust. The resurrection of the just will take place at the second coming of Christ, the resurrection of the unjust will take place a thousand years later, at the close of the millennium (John 5:28-29, 1 Thess. 4:13-18, Rev. 20:5-10).
- (xi) Final impenitent: That the final impenitent, including Satan, the author of sins, will be the fire of the last day, be reduced to a state of non-existence, becoming as though they had not been, thus purging the universe of God of sin and sinners (Rom. 6:23, Matt. 4:1-3, Rev. 20:9-10, Obadiah 16).
- (xii) The second coming: That no prophetic period is given in the Bible to reach to the Second Advent.
- (xiii) Followers of Christ: That the followers of Christ should be Godly people, not adopting the unholy maxims not conforming to the unrighteous ways of the world, not loving its sinful pleasures not countenancing its follies. That believers should recognize their bodies as they should clothe them in neat, modest, dignified apparel. Further, that in eating and drinking and in their entire course of conduct, they should shape their lives becoming followers of the meek and lowly master. Thus, the followers of Christ will be led to abstain from all intoxicating drinks, tobacco and other narcotics and to avoid everybody and soul-defiling habit and practice (1 Cor. 3:16-17, 9:25, I Tim. 2:9-10, I John 2:6).
- (xiv) Tithing and offerings: That the divine of tithes and offerings for the support of the gospel is an acknowledgement of God's ownership in our lives, and we are stewards who must render account to Him of all that He has committed to our possession (Lev. 27:30, Matt 20:23, I Cor. 9:9-14, II Cor. 9:6-15).

- (xv) Gifts of the Holy Spirit: That God has placed in His church the gifts of the Holy Spirit, as enumerated in I Corinthians 12 and Ephesians 4. That these gifts operate in harmony with the divine principles of the Bible, and are given “for ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ”. (Eph.4:12). That the Spirit of prophecy is one of the identifying marks of the remnant Church (I Cor. 1:5-7, 12:1-28, Rev. 12:17-19, Amos 3:7, Hosea 12:10-13).
- (xvi) Christ’s second coming: That the Second Coming of Christ is the hope of the church, the grand climax of the gospel and plan of salvation. His coming will be literal, personal and visible. Many important events will be associated with His return, such as the resurrection of the dead, the destruction of Satan and the establishment of his everlasting Kingdom. This almost completes fulfillments of various lines of prophecy particularly those found in the books of Daniel and Revelation, with existing conditions in the physical, social, industrial, political and religious worlds, indicating that Christ’s coming is “near ever at the doors”. That exact time of that event has not been foretold. Believers are exhorted to be ready for “ in such an hour as he thinks not, the Son of man will be revealed” (Luke 21:25-27, 17:26-30, John 14:1-3), Acts 1:9-11, REV. 1:7, Heb. 9:28, James 5:1-8, Joel 3:9-16, II Tim 3:1-5, Dan. 7:27).
- (xvii) Millennial reign of Christ: That the millennial reign of Christ covers the period between the first and the second resurrection, during which time the saints of all ages will live with their blessed redeemer. At the end of the millennium, the holy city. New Jerusalem “will come down from God out of Heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband”. A conflagration will destroy Satan and his host; the earth itself will be regenerated and cleansed from the effects of the curse. Thus, the universe of God will be purified from the foul blot of sin (Rev. 20, Rev. 21, Zech, 14:1-4, II Pet. 3:7-10).
- (xviii) Restoration: That God will make all things new. The earth restored to its pristine beauty, will become forever the abode of the saints of the Lord. The promise to Abraham that he and his seed shall possess the earth throughout the endless ages of eternity and the greatness of the Kingdom under the whole heaven shall be given to the people of the saints of the most high, whose kingdom is everlasting, Christ the Lord, will reign supreme over every creature which is in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, will ascribe Blessing and honor and glory and unto the Lamb forever and ever (Gen. 12:1-7, Gen. 13:14-17, Dan. 7:27, Rev. 5:13).

- (xix) Confession of sins: That to receive blessings from God through prayers, one must confess one's sins to God for forgiveness and also one's faults to the other for forgiveness. To confess one's faults and sins are not easy things to do. It requires humility and true repentance for true confession shows more greatness than victories. All Sabbath services and all other assemblies of God's people where they come together to worship Him and pray for one another, have to be preceded by confessions of sins. All who assemble and confess are purged of evil. Unless thy worship in holiness after purification, their coming together will be of no avail. (Mark 11:25-26, I John 1:8, 3:3, Numb 16:45-50).
- (xx) God the Healer: That God being the Father, He has the power to heal the sick through faithful prayers after purification. The sick should have strong belief in the Father so that the prayers can be answered and the sick be healed. The Bible is the test of all doctrines, whatever is at variance with the bible is not acceptable and therefore all idolatrous worship such as consulting herbalists, magicians, and using any kind of magic or any kind of native medicine recommended by them, is prohibited (Is. 42:8, 44:9-20, Rom. 1:21-32. I Cor. 10:20, I John 5:21).
- (xxi) God the Provider: That God being the Father, instructed man that there is some meat, birds and fish which man can eat and others which he should not eat (Lev.11:1-43).
- (xxii) The Lord's Supper: That the ordinance of the Lord's Supper commemorates the Savior's death and participation by members of the body is essential to Christian growth and fellowship. It is to be preceded by the act of foot washing as preparation of the solemn service (John 13:1-7, Matt.26:26-29, I Cor. 11:23-30). That God's Holy worship place, where man prays, should not be entered into with shoes on. Thus, at any time, at any place, when man is to worship God, shoes must be put off from the feet (Exd. 3:1-6, Joshua 5:15, Acts 7:30-33).
- (xxiii) Euthanasia: We believe that the direct taking of a innocent human life is a moral evil, regardless of the intention. Life is a gift from God and must be respected from conception till natural death occurs. Thus, we believe that an act or omission which, of itself or by intention causes death in order to eliminate suffering constitutes a murder
- (xxiv) Love: we believe that we should demonstrate love for others, not only towards fellow believers, but also towards non-believers. We're to deal with those who oppose us graciously, gently, patiently and humbly. God forbids the stirring up of strife, the taking of revenge or the threat of the use of violence as a means of resolving conflicts or obtaining justice. Although God commands us to abhor sinful actions, we are to love and pray for any person who engages in such sinful actions (Leviticus19:18, Mathew5:44-48, Luke6:31, John13:34-35, Romans12:9-10)

SECTION 2: AUTHORITY OF THE STATEMENT OF FAITH

The statement of faith does not exhaust the extent of our faith. The bible itself is the sole and final source of all that we believe. However, we do believe that the foregoing statement of faith accurately represents the teaching of the bible and therefore, is binding upon all members

SECTION 3: COVENANT

Having been led as we believe, by the spirit of God, to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our savior, and a profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father the Son, and the Holy spirit, we do now, in the presence of God, the angels, and His assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into a covenant with one another, as one body of Christ.

We engage, therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit to walk together in Christian love, to strive for the advancement of His church in knowledge, holiness and comfort, to promote its prosperity and spirituality; to sustain its worship, ordinance, discipline and doctrines; to give it a sacred preeminence of all institutions of human origin

We also engage to maintain family and private devotions; to religiously educate our children; to seek the salvation of our kindred, acquaintances and all others; to be just in our dealing, faithful to our engagements and exemplary in our deportment; to avoid all tattling backbiting and excessive anger; to be free from all oathbound secrete societies and partnership with nonbelievers; to abstain from the sale or use of tobacco in any form, narcotic drug or intoxicating drink as a beverage; and to be zealous in our efforts to advance the kingdom of our Savior.

We further engage to watch over one another in brotherly love; to remember each other in prayer; to aid each other in sickness and distress; to be slow to take offence, but always ready for reconciliation without delay.

ARTICLE 3

Common practices of the church

Members of the Church believe in practical events which make God's people to be healed from their sicknesses, and make them clean from their sins and they become full of Holy Spirit that enables them to do miracles.

SECTION 1: Purification: God's people keep themselves clean all the time and therefore members of the Church should purify themselves all the time and especially before prayers (1:John3:3,IICor.7:1).

SECTION2: Fasting: God's people do fast when they are praying for a particular thing. Prayers during the fasting period has more weight, therefore members of the Church shall fast whenever there is need(Joel 2:12, Jonah 3:3-10).

SECTION 3: Good health: The Church believes in prayers for healing but also encourages the sick to seek medical attention (Mark 5:1-13, 7:32-37).

SECTION 4 Praying for the sick: Offering special prayers and Christian songs during prayer meetings as guided by the Holy Spirit, helps to heal the sick.

ARTICLE 4

Standards of Christian living

SECTION 1:The High Calling of God in Christ Jesus

The Christian's life is not a slight modification or improvement, but a complete transformation of his nature. This means a death to self and sin and a resurrection to a new life as a new man in Christ Jesus. The heart of the Christian becomes the dwelling place of Christ by faith; thus, it is that Christians feel the companionship of the divine presence and it is only as we realize that presence that our thoughts are brought into capital to Jesus Christ and our habits of life made to conform to the divine standards. We should bear in mind that as a shield from temptation and an inspiration to purity and truth, no other influence can equal the sense of God's presence. Let us remember that wherever we are, and whatever we do, we are in the presence of God. No part of our conduct escapes His observation.

God loves all men and His children in particular. His ear is ever open to the call of His people, those who have turned from the world and given themselves to him. Out of this sacred relationship grows respect and reverence which is manifested everyday and everywhere.

As Christians, we are members of the royal family, children of the heavenly King. As Christians, we should say no word, perform no act, that would bring dishonor upon that worthy name by which we are called – Christians. All should come to the high standard of Christian life and be separated from the world (2 John 2:15)

SECTION 2: Bible Study and Prayer

Spiritual life is maintained by spiritual food. The habit of durational Bible study and prayer must be maintained if we are to perfect holiness. There are so many things from the world today, pleading for a hearing. It is high time we closed our eyes and our ears to much of that which is seeking entrance to our minds, and devote ourselves to God's Book – the Book of all books, the Book of Life – the Bible.

If we cease to be people of the Book, we are lost, and our mission has failed. Only as we daily talk to God in prayer and listen to His voice speaking to us from the Bible can we hope to live the life that bides with Christ in God (Col. 3:3) or finish His work.

The home is the cornerstone of the church and a Christian home is a house of prayer. No matter how pressing our businesses, we should not fail to gather our families around God's altar.

SECTION 3: Community Relationship

While our 'hope' is in heaven from hence also we wait for a savior (Phil. 3: 20), we are yet in the world as an integral part of human society and must share with our fellow men certain responsibility in the common problems of life. In every community where we live, the members of the church, as children of God, should be recognized as outstanding citizens in our Christian integrity in working for the common good of all. We should take upon ourselves the obligation of passing the gospel and its blessings on to others. In this way, the work of salvation is extended. God expects every soul reclaimed from sin to join in the same work for others that lifted him up and placed His feet on the rock. The good things of God are not to be selfishly kept to ourselves. We receive to give and should also engage in loving services for the welfare and happiness of others.

As a church, we must part from all political and social strife; we should always quietly and firmly maintain an uncompromising stand for justice and right in the civic affairs along with strict adherence to our religious convictions. It is our sacred responsibility to be loyal citizens of the governments of which we belong, rendering unto Ceaser the things which are Ceasar's and unto God the things that are God's (Matt. 22:17-21).

SECTION 4: Sabbath Keeping

The Sabbath is the great memorial of the creative power of the true and living God. God's design in making the Sabbath was that man might never forget Him, The Creator of all things (Eze 20:12). Its observance is evidence of our loyalty to Him. In a special sense, the Sabbath is a test of obedience. Unless we pass that test as individual, how can we adequately present the Sabbath message to the world?

The Sabbath hours belong to God, and are to be used for Him alone. Our own pleasure, words, business and thoughts should find no place in the observance of the Lord's Day.

The Sabbath thus becomes a sign by which the believers in a historical Revelation are distinguished from those who have allowed these facts to fade from their memory (Ex. 31:13). The observance of Sabbath becomes the characteristics of those who cherish the recollections of the Origin and who worship God not merely as Elohim the everlasting Almighty, but as Jehovah, the historical God, the Creator who revealed Himself to man from the dawn of His existence as the God of love and Afterward of mercy and grace, of promise and performance.

So, let us gather around the family circle at sunset and welcome the holy Sabbath with prayers and song, and let us close the day with prayers and expression of gratitude for His wondrous love. The Sabbath is a special day for worship in the home and in the church, a day of joy to us and our children, a day in which to learn more of God through the Bible and the great lesson book of nature. It is time to visit the sick and work for the souls.

SECTION 5: Reverence for the Place of Worship

Christians who appreciate God is omnipotence, His holiness, and His Love will always and under all circumstances test a spirit of deep reverence for God, His word and His worship. Humility and reverence should characterize the deportment of those who come into the presence of God.

They will recognize that the hour and the place of prayer are sacred, because God is there. They will come to the house of worship, not carelessly, but in the spirit of meditation. They will avoid unnecessary conservation. Parents should reverently instruct their children as to how they should behave in the house of God (1 Tim. 3:15). Faithful instruction and discipline in the home, Sabbath school and church during the days of childhood and youth in regard to reverence for God and His worship will go far in holding their loyalty.

The minister who senses the sacredness of God's service will, by his example, instruction and conduct in the pulpit, show simplicity, good order and decorum in the church. The Lord is in His holy temple; let all the earth keep silent before Him.

SECTION 6: Dress

It is important to settle a plan of duty at once and not to delay obedience under the executive of waiting for more light. We members of Lord's Last Call Church are reformers. We have been called out from the world. Our habits of life must stem from principles not from the example of the world around us. Customs and fashions may change with years but principles of right conduct are the same. Dress is an important factor in the Christian church. Early in the Bible history, instructions were given as to the way Christians should dress, the purpose of which was to protect the people of God from the corrupting influence of the world as well as to promote physical and moral health. There is no virtue in dressing differently from those around us just to be different, but where the principles of revelation or morality are involved, the conscientious Christian will be true to his convictions rather than follow the prevailing customs. (Revelations 3:4-5)

Christians should avoid gaudy display and profuse ornamentation.

The clothing should be of becoming colors. It should be chosen for durability rather than display. Do not insult heaven with the question whether it is right to obey. Only believe, that says the Lord, that for services and business meetings our attire should be characterized by white clothing, modest grace and appropriateness of natural simplicity. That is may not be conspicuous, but should be conservative and sensible.

- (i) The ordinary female members of the church shall wear white short sleeved full dresses with round necks. The lengths of the dresses shall be a few inches past the knee of the wearer while in a standing position.
- (ii) The deaconesses shall wear white long-sleeved full dresses with Chinese collar. The dresses shall reach the shin of the wearer while in a standing position.
- (iii) All the female members of the church shall wear white veils tied with 1¾ inch film material on their heads.

- (iv) The ordinary male members of the church shall wear white trousers, white long-sleeved half-kanzu whose length shall reach the trouser pockets of the wearer while in a standing position. The half-kanzu shall have flat round neck and chest pocket.
- (v) The deacons shall wear white trousers, white long-sleeved half-kanzu whose length shall reach the knee of the wearer while in a standing position; the half-kanzu shall have Chinese collar and chest pocket.
- (vi) The altar elders shall wear white trousers, white long-sleeved full kanzus with Chinese solar. The kanzus shall have two side pockets and chest pockets.
- (vii) The Pastors shall wear white trousers, white long-sleeved open full kanzus with buttons from top to bottom, white wide-sleeved half-kanzus with gathers whose length shall reach the waist of the wearer. The kanzus shall have two side pockets and chest pockets.
- (viii) The Pastor-General and the Deputy Pastor-General shall dress like the other pastors except that the length of the white wide sleeved half-kanzu with gathers shall reach the knee of the wearer. With Pastor General wearing weaved white scarf.
- (ix) All the male members of the church shall wear white caps.

SECTION 7:Simplicity

Simplicity shall be a fundamental feature of the church. We must continue to be plain people without the increase of pomp (outward-show), which in religion always parallels decline in spiritual power. The life of Jesus presented a marked contrast to display an orientation of his time. The Lord condemns needless extravagant expenditure of money to gratify pride and the love of display. In harmony with these principles, simplicity and economy should characterize our graduating exercise, the weddings in our churches and all other church service

SECTION 8: Music

Music was made to service a holy purpose to lift the thought to that which is pure, noble and elevating, and to awaken in the soul devotion and gratitude to God. Jesus held communion with heaven in song. Music is one of the highest arts. Good music not only gives pleasure but also elevates the mind and cultivates the finest qualities. Spiritual songs have often been used of God to touch the hearts of sinners and lead to repentance. Debased music, on the contrary destroys the rhythm.

Great care should be exercised in the choice of music. Any melody partaking of the jazz, rock, or related hybrid form, many languages expressing foolishness of sentiments, will be shunned by persons of the true culture. Let us use only good music in the home, in social gatherings, in the school and in the church.

ARTICLE 5

Marriage and family

SECTION 1: Covenant (Man and Wife)

Marriage was divinely established in Eden and affirmed by Jesus to be a lifelong union between a man and a woman in loving companionship. For the Christian a marriage commitment is to God as well as to the spouse, and should be entered into only between a man and a woman who share a common faith. Mutual love, honor, respect, and responsibility are the fabric of this relationship, which is to reflect the love, sanctity, closeness, and permanence of the relationship between Christ and His church. Regarding divorce, Jesus taught that the person who divorces a spouse, except for fornication, and marries another, commits adultery.

Although some family relationships may fall short of the ideal, a man and a woman who fully commit themselves to each other in Christ through marriage may achieve loving unity through the guidance of the Spirit and the nurture of the church.

God blesses the family and intends that its members shall assist each other toward complete maturity. Increasing family closeness is one of the earmarks of the final gospel message. Parents are to bring up their children to love and obey the Lord. By their example and their words, they are to teach them that Christ is a loving, tender, and caring guide who wants them to become members of His body, the family of God which embraces both single and married persons.

(Gen. 2:18-25; Exod. 20:12; Deut. 6:5-9; Prov. 22:6; Mal. 4:5, 6; Matt. 5:31, 32; 19:3-9, 12; Mark 10:11, 12; John 2:1-11; 1 Cor. 7:7, 10, 11; 2 Cor. 6:14; Eph. 5:21-33; 6:1-4.)

When God bless us with children, the wellbeing of the children is dedicated in the hearts of Father and Mother then security and love.

We in Lord's Last Call Church must embrace this at all the times.

SECTION 2: Courtship and Marriage

The ideal meaning – we prepare our souls while introducing one another for a noble mission. Courtship is recognized as a preparatory period during which a man and a woman, already mutually attracted, become more thoroughly acquainted with each other in preparation for intended marriage. Christian marriage is a divinely sanctioned union between a believing man and a believing woman for the fulfillment of their mutual love, for mutual support, for shared happiness, and for the procreation and rearing of children who will in turn become Christians. According to God's design, this union lasts until dissolved by the death of one of the partners.

Marriage is the foundation of human society, and true affection between man and woman is ordained of God. "Let those who are contemplating marriage weigh every sentiment and watch every development of character in the one with whom they think to unite their life destiny. Let every step toward a marriage alliance be characterized by modesty, simplicity, sincerity, and an earnest purpose to please and honor God. Marriage affects the afterlife both in this world and in the world to come. A sincere Christian will make no plans that God cannot approve."- The Ministry of Healing.

The failure to follow these principles in Christian courtship may lead to tragedy. Unity of husband and wife in ideals and purposes is a requisite to a happy and successful home. The Scriptures counsel, "Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers" (2 Cor. 6:14).

Differences regarding religion are likely to mar the happiness of a home where partners hold different beliefs, and lead to confusion, perplexity, and failure in the rearing of children.

"The family tie is the closest, the most tender and sacred, of any on earth. It was designed to be a blessing to mankind. And it is a blessing wherever the marriage covenant is entered into intelligently, in the fear of God, and with due consideration for its responsibilities.

Worship of God, Sabbath keeping, recreation, association, use of financial resources, and training of children are responsible components of happy family relationships. Because differences in these areas can often lead to a deterioration of these relationships, to discouragement, and even to a complete loss of Christian experience, an adequate preparation for marriage should include premarital pastoral counseling in these areas.

"Can two walk together, except they be agreed?' (Amos 3:3). The happiness and prosperity of the marriage relation depends upon the unity of the parties; but between the believer and the unbeliever there is a radical difference of tastes, inclinations, and purposes. They are serving two masters, between whom there can be no concord. However pure and correct one's principles may be, the influence of an unbelieving companion will have a tendency to lead away from God."

The Spirit of Prophecy consistently counsels against marriage between "the believer and the unbeliever" and further cautions against uniting with fellow Christians who have "not accepted the truth for this time."—Testimonies. Marriages are more likely to endure, and family life to fulfill the divine plan, if husband and wife are united and are bound together by common spiritual values and lifestyles. For these reasons, the Lord's Last Call Church strongly discourages marriage between a Lord's Last Call Church and a non-Lord's Last Call Church, and strongly urges Lord's Last Call Church ministers not to perform such weddings.

The church recognizes that it is the prerogative of the individual to make the final decision relative to the choice of a marriage partner. However, it is the hope of the church that, if the member chooses a marriage partner who is not a member of the church, the couple will realize and appreciate that the Lord's Last Call Church minister, who has covenanted to uphold the principles outlined above, should not be expected to perform such a marriage. If an individual does enter into such a marriage, the church is to demonstrate love and concern with the purpose of encouraging the couple toward complete unity in Christ. For further information on the subject of marriage we urge courting to happen within our members for nurture our believers.

As stated above when the time comes for both souls to be one. The church must be made aware and organize the process of uniting them. The church shall give instructions as of what to do before prayers are performed. We in Lords Last Call Church will and shall only unite such marriages after receiving a consent letter from both parties for the union.

SECTION 3: Polygamy in the Bible with Implications for Lord's Last Call Church

Problem Polygamy, or marriage to more than one spouse at the same time, is a worldwide practice that still affects the lives of many people. As such it must be given serious attention by any Christian involved in mission work. As a denomination we emphasis, the Lord's Last Call Church is often confronted with the issue of polygamy. The question as to how these practicing polygamists should be treated must be approached from a biblical perspective.

Method Accepting the Bible as the authoritative revelation of the will of God, this set out to make a hermeneutically sound and contextually valid investigation of the passages and periscopes related to polygamy. Linguistic, grammatical, theological, historical, and cultural contexts were taken into account in order to determine which interpretation of the texts under consideration proved to be the most reliable based on the weight of evidence.

In addition to A biblical perspective on polygamy, as produced by Christian are critically assessed. However, accepting the Bible as the final norm, none of these extra-biblical sources was given any authority over the text of Scripture itself. Following an examination of the original institution of marriage in Eden and the form of marriage evident at the flood, the following Old Testament passages are sequentially analyzed: Exodus 21:7-11, Lev 18:18, Deut 17:17, Deut 21:15-17, Exodus 22:16, 17 and Deut 22:28, 29, Deut 25:5-10, Gen 38, Ruth 4, and Ezek 23:1-49.

The accounts of the marriages of the antediluvians, Lamech, Abraham, Jacob, Esau, Moses, Gideon, Elkanah, David, Solomon, and Joash were examined. After a discussion of passages from Matt 19 and 22, Acts 15, 1 Cor 7, 1 Tim 3, and Titus 1, a synopsis of the principles arising from the study was made. Based on these biblical principles, missiological implications for a sound policy on polygamy were outlined to show that God was the originator of marriage according to Genesis, monogamy was established as the law of marriage for all humanity. While every one of the passages related to marital forms harmonizes well with this monogamous standard, it was discovered that certain Old Testament laws as well as some New Testament passages prohibit the practice of polygamy for all. Close analysis of all texts related to marital forms indicated that none permits, promotes, or prescribes polygamy. Careful examination of the lives of the major polygamists shows that there is no evidence of any divine approval or sanction for their practice of polygamy. On the contrary, there are several indications of condemnation, judgment, or punishment on these polygamists for this violation of God's marital requirements.

Those who responded to the divine intervention in their lives went through a transformation, resulting in the termination of polygamy, together with proper care for all members of the family.

Conclusions based on the fact that the Bible shows monogamy to be a universal moral requirement and polygamy to be a violation of the divine principle, it was concluded that all Christians are to abstain from polygamy. Furthermore, in order to have a scripturally reliable and mission logical sound policy on polygamy, the Lord's Last Call Church needs to ensure that its position on this issue is in harmony with the fundamental theological principles that emerge from the Bible.

Therefore, the Holy Book does not accept and admit polygamy. We in Lord's Last Call Church following the bible and believe in God – we also reject and does not accept polygamy. In this context you happen to be in any leadership role in the church i.e. Church elders, evangelist, pastor and you want to become polygamist and already holding the position, you are informed that you relinquish your position and become an ordinary member like any other brothers and sisters. That is our position.

This happens to those who joined the church as monogamist, but want to become polygamist. For those who converted and joined church already polygamous. The above does not involve, but cautioned that if they want to remarry another woman despite the one, he/she has, automatically he removes himself/herself from holding the position.

We in Lord's Last Call Church encourage and urge our members to be monogamists.

If a member of Lord's Last Call Church wants to be a polygamist. He/she should be ready to furnish the church with the following reasons which the local church or synod shall discuss and get convinced or reject:

1. Your relationship with your God
2. Your relationship with your family
3. Your relationship with your position in church
4. Is your wife/husband alive or dead
5. Is your husband/wife insane/sick (show nature)
6. Is your wife/husband a believer or not believer
7. Is your wife/husband a believer or incapacitated
8. Does your age allow you to remarry
9. What age of the spouse you want to marry
10. What do you do for the living.
11. Which gender of children do you have.
12. For how long have you fellowshipped.

The panel shall discuss and give their verdict. Remember you shall appear in person for both you to answer the indicated questioning and others that the board shall see fit for meeting and have full knowledge. The board shall give the direction which shall be used for the next step.

We urge all our members to be very open to discuss these factors and consider the 12 points, soul search before making the decision to become a polygamist.

ARTICLE 6

Baptism

SECTION 1: Baptism by immersion- Baptism by immersion typifies the death, burial and resurrection of Christ and openly expresses faith in His saving grace and renunciation of sin and the world (Mathew3;13-17, 28:19, Romans6:1-11)

Baptism is a most solemn renunciation of the world. Those who are baptized in the threefold names of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit at the beginning of their Christian life declared that they have forsaken the service of Satan and have become members of the royal family, children of the Heavenly King. The Church believes in baptism by immersion, this is done only when a person acknowledges his lost state as a sinner, sincerely repent his sins and experiences conversion.

A local church elder should not present any candidate for baptism until he or she has satisfied the church by public examination that the candidate has been well instructed and is ready to take such a step. The local church elder's work is not complete until the candidate is familiar with all points of the faith. The branches (local churches), through the church boards, shall insist that candidate be instructed individually and in addition, whenever possible, be taught in a baptismal class.

SECTION 2: Doctrinal Instructions for Baptismal Candidates: The summary of doctrinal beliefs is especially prepared for the instruction of candidates for baptism. Every candidate should thoroughly familiarize himself or herself with the teachings contained in this outline and his or her willing acceptance of the doctrine taught by the Church, and the principles and conduct which are the outward expression of these teachings for it is "by their fruits ye shall know them":

- (i) The true and living God, the first person of the God head, is our heavenly Gather and He, by His Son, Christ Jesus, created all things (Matt-28:18, 1 Cor 8:5-6, Eph 3:9, Jer 10:10-12, Heb. 1:1-3).
- (ii) Jesus Christ, the second person of the Godhead and the eternal son of God, is the only savior from sin and man's salvation is by grace through faith in Him (Matt 28:18, John 3:16, Mic5:2, Matt 1:21, 2:5-6, Acts 4:12, I John 5:11-12, Eph. 1:9-15, 2:4-8, Rom.3:23-26).

- (iii) The Holy Spirit, the third person of the Godhead, is Christ's representative on earth and leads sinners to repentance and to obedience of God's requirements (Matt 28:18, John 14:26, 15:26, Rom 8:1-10).
- (iv) Through Christ, believers receive forgiveness of sins which are forsaken and confessed and for which as far as lies in their power, the restitution is made (Eph. 1:7, I John 1:7-9, Isa. 55:6-7, Eze. 33:15, Matt. 5:24, 6:14-15).
- (v) The Bible is God's inspired word and is the full, the sufficient and the only basic rule of faith and practice (II Tim. 3:15-17, I Peter 1:19-21, Ps 199:11,105 130, I Thess. 2:13, Isa 8:20, Jer. 15:16, Heb 4:12).
- (vi) All who enter the kingdom of heaven must have experienced conversion of the new birth through which man receives a new heart and becomes mature. Thus, regardless of ethnic or social background, he becomes a member of the holy family in heaven and earth (Mat 18:3, John 3:3, II Cor. 5:17, Eze. 36:26-27, Heb. 8:10-12, I Peter 1:23, 2:2, Songs 17:16), Luke 23:23.
- (vii) Christ dwells in the regenerated heart, writing upon it the principles of God's laws, teaching the believers to delight in obeying its precepts and imparting power for such obedience (II Cor 6:16, Ps 50:8, John 14:15, Col. 1:27, 3:16, Gal. 2:20, Eph. 3:14-21).
- (viii) The Second Coming of Christ is the hope of the church, the climax of the gospel and the goal of the plan of redemption, when Jesus will come literally, personally and visibly, with all His holy angels.
- (ix) The righteous dead will be raised to life at Christ's Second Coming. Together with the righteous living, they will be caught up to meet the Lord in the air and will go with Him to spend the one thousand years known as the millennium (Rev.1:7. John 5:25, 28, 29, Hosea 13:14, I Cor. 15:55, I Thess 4:13-18, John 11:24-25, 14:1-3, Isa 25:8).
- (x) The wicked that are living at the time of Christ's Second Coming will be slain by the brightness of His coming. These with the wicked dead of all ages will await the second resurrection at the close of the one thousand years (II Thess 1:1-10, 2, 8, Jude 14, 15, Jude, Rev. 20:5, 12:5, John 5:28-29).

- (xi) The earth cleansed by fire and renewed by the power of God will become the eternal home of the redeemed (II Peter 3:9-13, Isa 65:17-25, 35:1-10, 45:10, Matt 5:5, Mal 4:1-3, Prov. 11:31).
- (xii) The Seventh day of the week is the eternal sign of Christ's power as creator and redeemer and is therefore the Lord's Day or the Christian Sabbath constituting the seal of the living God. It should be observed from sunset Friday to sunset Saturday (Gen. 2:1-3, Ex. 16:23-31, 20:8-11, Isa 66: 22-23, Lev. 23:32).
- (xiii) The faith is holy unto the Lord and is to God's provision of the support of his work throughout the world (Lev.27:30-32, Mal. 3:8-12, Num. 18:20-23, Matt.23:23, Prov. 3:9-10, I Cor. 9:13-14, II Cor.9:6-7).
- (xiv) Immortality comes only through the gospel and is bestowed as a gift from God at Christ' Second Coming (I Cor. 15:21-22, I John. 5:11-12, Ps. 146:3-4, Eccl. 9:5-10, I Cor. 22:51-55, I Tim. 6:15, II Tim. 1:10).
- (xv) That a Christian should recognize his body as the temple of the Holy Spirit. He will therefore honor God by caring for his body intelligently partaking in moderation of that which is good and avoiding the use of alcohol, abstaining from all unclean foods from the use of beverages and tobacco in any of its form and the abuse or use of narcotics and all other drugs (I Cor. 3:16-17, 6:19-20, 9:15-20, II Cor. 7:1, Gal. 5:12-21, 6:7-8, I Cor. 10:1-11)
- (xvii) In the Christian life there is complete separation from worldly practices such as card playing, theatre going, dancing, which tend to deaden and destroy the spiritual life (II Cor. 6:15-18, I John 2:21-27, James 4:4, Eph. 5:8-11, Col. 3:5-10)

SECTION 3: Baptismal Vow and Baptism- In the presence of the Church members or in the presence of a properly appointed body, the following questions should be posed and answered in the affirmative by the candidates for baptism before they are baptized:

- (i) Do you believe in God the Father, in His Son Jesus Christ and in the Holy Spirit?
- (ii) Do you accept the death of Jesus Christ on Calvary as an atoning sacrifice for the sins of men and believe that through faith in His shed blood men are saved from sin and its penalty?

- (iii) Renouncing the world and its sinful ways, have you accepted Jesus Christ as your personal savior? And do you believe that God, for Christ's sake, has forgiven our sins and given you a new heart?
- (iv) Do you accept by faith the righteousness of Christ, recognizing Him as your intercessor in the heavenly sanctuary and you claim His promise to strengthen you by His indwelling spirit so that you may receive power to do His will?
- (v) Do you believe that the Bible is God's inspired Word and that it constitutes the only rule of faith and practice for Christians?
- (vi) Do you accept the Ten Commandments as still binding upon Christians and it is your purpose, by the power of the indwelling Christ to keep His Law, including the Fourth Commandment which requires the observance of the Seventh Day of the week as the Sabbath of the Lord?
- (vii) Do you believe that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit and that you are to honor God by abstaining from all unclean foods, from the abuse or misuse of narcotics and all other drugs?
- (viii) Do you accept doctrines of spiritual gifts and do you believe that the spirit of prophesy is one of the identifying marks of the remnant church?
- (ix) Is the son coming of Jesus the blessed hope in your heart, and is it your settled determination to prepare to meet Him in peace as well as to help others to get ready for His glorious appearing?
- (x) Do you believe in church organization and is it your purpose to support the church by your faith and offering your personal effort and influence?
- (xi) Do you accept the New Testament teaching of immersion and so you desire to be baptized as a public expression on you faith in Christ and in the forgiveness of your sins?
- (xii) Knowing and understanding the fundamental Bible principles as taught by the church, is it your purpose, by the grace of God, to order your life in harmony with these principles?

ARTICLE 7

Membership

- (a) The admission to the church is free for those persons who are spiritually impressed. Such persons are to be taught the fundamental beliefs and the common practices of the church, upon comprehension of which will qualify him or her to be registered as a church member on payment of KShs. 100/=.
- (b) This is a spiritual relationship. It can be entered into only by those who are converted. Only in this can the purity and spiritual caliber of the church be maintained. It is the duty of every local church elder to instruct those who accept the principles of truth, so that such persons may enter the church on sound spiritual foundation.
- (c) In the event of a registered member absenting himself for six consecutive months without attending Sabbath services with no reasonable cause, such a person shall be considered to have ceased to be a member of the church.
- (d) A member shall not be dropped from the church rolls on the account of his inability or failure to render financial help to any of the causes of the church. Church membership rests primarily on a spiritual basis, yet it is the duty of every member of the church of the church to support the work of the church financially to the best of his ability.
- (e) Greater care must be exercised in dealing with a member who requests that his own name be dropped from the membership. Although we recognize the right of an individual to decide whether or not he will belong to the church, ample time should be given to such a member for more sober reflection. Every effort should be made to restore such a member to a satisfactory experience.
- (f) Any member may be expelled from membership (disfellowshipped) if the Supreme Council so recommends and if a general meeting of the church shall resolve by a two-thirds majority of the members present that such a member should be expelled on the grounds that his or her conduct has adversely affected the reputation or dignity of the church, or that he or she has contravened any of the provisions of the Constitution of the church.

The Supreme Council shall have power to suspend a member from his or her membership until the next general meeting of the church following such suspension, but notwithstanding such suspension, a member whose expulsion is proposed shall have the right to address the general meeting at which his or her expulsion is to be considered. Due notice shall be given by the church to the member under discipline, of intention to expel him or her, thus, giving him or her an opportunity to appear on his or her own behalf.

- (g) Any person who resigns or is removed from membership shall not be entitled to a refund of his or her subscription or any part thereof or any moneys contributed by him or her at any time.

ARTICLE 8

Church Discipline

The attention of all members, spiritual and administrative leaders of the church, is drawn to the important quotations from the spirit of prophecy. These statements are worthy of the church members' careful and prayerful study. They set forth in clear, unmistakable language, the solemn responsibility that rests upon spiritual favor of the church.

SECTION 1: Dealing with Erring Members

- (i) In dealing with erring members, God's people are carefully drawn to the instructions given by Christ in the eighteenth Chapter of Mathew. Human beings are Christ's property, purposed by Him at an infinite price, bound to Him by the love that He and His Father have manifested for them.
- (ii) Church members have no right to follow their own impulses and inclinations in dealing with fellow members who have erred.

SECTION 2: Administering Discipline

If a members fall into sin, sincere efforts should be made to reclaim him or her. If the erring one repents and submit, to Christ discipline, then he or she shall be forgiven. If the erring one does not repent, God's servants still have work to do for him or her. They have a responsibility to win the erring one to repentance however serious the offence might be. If the erring one yields, forsakes his or her sins and sincerely repents, then he or she shall be forgiven and welcomed back into the fold even if her or she was already under suspension. When grievous sins are involved, disciplinary measures must be taken. There are two ways by which this can be done: by a vote of censure and by a vote of disfellowship.

SECTION 3: Censure

Censure has two purposes. These are to enable the church to express its disapproval of a grievous offence that has brought disgrace upon the cause of God, and to impress on the offending member the need for amendment of life and reformation in his or her conduct.

An erring member may be placed under censure by a vote of the church at any duly convened meeting of the church, provided that the member concerned has been notified. A vote of censure is for a stated period of time such as weeks, months or years, depending on the gravity of the offence committed. It automatically removes the erring one from the privilege of election to office. A member under censure has no right to participate by voice or vote in the affairs of the church and can have no public part in the exercise thereof, such as teaching a Sabbath school, preaching, etc. Neither is he or she allowed to transfer his or her membership to another branch within the Church during the period of censure. He is not deprived however, the privilege of sharing the blessings of Sabbath school, church worship, or the ordinances of the church – Lord's house.

A vote of censure must not carry any provision of severance of church membership in case of failure to comply with conditions imposed. Proper inquiry should be made at the expiration of the period of censure to ascertain whether the member under discipline has changed his or her course. If his or her conduct is satisfactory, the censorship may be lifted without further action. If on the other hand, he or she has not changed his or her course, then his or her case shall again be considered and such discipline administered as the case requires.

SECTION 4: Termination of membership (Disfellowship)

To disfellowship a member means to expel him from the membership. To cut off a member from fellowship with the church, the body of Christ, is always a serious matter. It is the ultimate in the discipline that the Church can administer. It is the extreme measure that can be meted out by the Church. Only after all possible ways have been tried to win an erring member from the evils of his or her ways and restore him or her to the right paths have failed should this kind of discipline be used. Disfellowship will only be affected by the Supreme Council. (Numbers 15:30-31)

(e) Reasons for which Members shall be disciplined

Among the grievous sins for which members shall be subjected to church discipline are the following: -

- (i) Denial of faith in the fundamentals of the gospel and in the cardinal doctrines of the church, or teaching doctrines contrary to the same.
- (ii) Open violation of the law of God, such as worship of idols, murder, adultery, fornication, stealing, gambling, Sabbath breaking, willful and habitual falsehood, and the remarriage of the divorced person, except of the innocent spouse in a divorce for adultery.

- (iii) Fraud or willful misrepresentation in business.
- (iv) Disorderly conduct which brings reproach upon the church.
- (v) Adhering to or taking part in a division or disloyal movement or organization against the church.
- (vi) Persistent refusal to recognize properly constituted church authority or refusal to submit to the order and discipline of the church.
- (vii) Instigating legal action against the church or any of its organizations or institutions, contrary to Biblical counsel.
- (viii) The use, manufacture or sale of alcoholic beverages.
- (ix) The use of tobacco or addiction to narcotic drugs.

The church recognizes the need of exercising great care to protect the highest spiritual interests of its members to ensure fair treatment and to safeguard the fair name of the Church.

In some cases of transgression of the Commandments of God, where there is deep repentance and full and free confession giving evidence that genuine conversion has taken place, the church may administer discipline by placing the transgressor under censure for a stated period of time.

In case of flagrant violations of the law of God which have brought public reproach upon the course, the Church may deem it necessary, even though a sincere confession has been made, to disfellowship the member to protect its fair name and its Christian standards. The Church will not permit personal consideration to affect its actions. It must register its decisive and emphatic disapproval of the sins of fornication, adultery, all acts of immoral indication and other grievous sins, and at the same time it must do everything to restore and reclaim the erring ones. As we are not of the world, we must not lower the standards set by God but must take prompt and decisive action where immoral impresses have occurred.

SECTION 5: Notification to Termination of Membership

It is incumbent upon the Church that disfellowshipped members be notified individually in writing of the action that was reluctantly taken against them, with the assurance of enduring spiritual interests and person concern. The erring member should also be assured that the church will always hope that re-affiliation will take place and that one day there will be eternal fellowship together in the Kingdom of God.

SECTION 6: Reinstating Disfellowshipped Members

When a member has been disfellowshipped, the Church should, if possible, keep in touch with him and manifest the spirit of friendship and love, endeavoring to win him back to the fold. A person disfellowshipped from the Church may be received again into membership when confession of wrongs committed is made evident, he has given a real repentance and amendment of life, and it is clear that the member will fully submit to the Church order and discipline. Such reinstated member should preferably be in a branch from which he was expelled. No branch should at any time receive into its membership a person who is under censure of another branch. Such a course condones the offence for which another branch has applied discipline and it is not in keeping with the spirit of the golden rule.

SECTION 7: The Right to Appeal

A member who has been disfellowshipped has a right to appeal to the Church for a hearing. If the branch from which he was expelled refuses to consider his appeal for reinstatement, such an individual has a right to appeal to the diocesan committee under which the branch falls, for a hearing. If after a full and impartial hearing, the diocesan committee is satisfied that the member may be reinstated, the diocesan committee shall write to the Executive Committee, recommending that such a member be reinstated. The Executive Committee shall make a decision concerning the appeal of such a member, subject to ratification or otherwise at the next Supreme Council meeting.

SECTION 8: Legal representation

The work of the Church in its administration of order and discipline is an ecclesiastical function. Therefore, the Church does not recognize the right of any member to bring a lawyer to represent him in any church meeting convened to administer order or discipline, or convened for the transaction of any business relating to the Church

 - (i) Amendments to the Constitution can only be made by the Supreme Council of the Church in accordance with the provisions of article 23.
 - (ii) The provision of article 24 shall apply to branches but, in addition, branches will not be dissolved without consultation with the Executive Committee.
- (a) Branches of the church shall have power to manage their own funds in the same manner as is stipulated in rule 20 above.

ARTICLE 23

Amendments to the constitution

Amendments to the Constitution of the Church must be approved by at least a two-thirds majority of members at a general meeting of the Church. They cannot, however, be implemented without the prior consent in writing of the Registrar, obtained upon application to him made in writing and signed by three of the office bearers.

Dissolution

- (a) The Church shall not be dissolved except by a resolution passed at a general meeting of members by a vote of two-thirds of the members present. The quorum at the meeting shall be as shown in rule 17(e). If no Quorum is obtained, the proposal to dissolve the Church shall be submitted to a further general meeting which shall be held one month later. Notice of this meeting shall be given to all members of the Church at least 14 days before the date of the meeting. The quorum for this second meeting shall be the number of members present.
- (b) Provided, however, that no dissolution shall be effected without prior permission in writing to the Registrar, obtained upon application to him made in writing and signed by three of the office bearers.
- (c) When the dissolution of the Church has been approved by the Registrar, no further action shall be taken by the Supreme Council or any office bearer of the Church in connection with the aims of the Church other than to get in and liquidate for cash all the assets of the Church. Subject to the payment of all the debts of the Church, the balance thereof shall be distributed in such other manner as may be resolved by the meeting at which the resolution for dissolution is passed.

Inspection of Accounts and List of Members

The books of account and all documents relating thereto and a list of members of the Church shall be available for inspection by any officer or member of the Church of giving not less than seven days notice in writing to the Church.
